LISTENING ANGELS.

BY CHARLES DICKENS.

Blue against the bluer heavens
Stood the mountain calm and still;
Two white angels, bending earthward,
Leant upon the hill.

Listening leant those silent angels,
And I, also, longed to hear
What sweet strains of earthly music
Thus could charm their ear.

I heard the sound of many trumpets,
And war-like march drew nigh;
Solemnly a mighty army
Passed in order by.

But the clang had ceased; the echo
Soon had faded from the hill;
While the angels calm and earnest,
Leant and listened still.

Then I heard a fainter clamor;
Forge and wheel were clashing near,
And the reapers in the meadow
Singing loud and clear.

When the sunset came in glory,
And the toil of day was o'er,
Still the angels leant in silence,
Listening as before.

Then, as daylight slowly vanished,
And the evening mists grew dim,
Solemnly, from distant voices,
Rose a vesper hymn.

But the chant was done; and lingering,
Died upon the evening air;
Yet from the hill the radiant angels
Still were listening there.

Silent came the gathering darkness,
Bringing with it sleep and rest;
Save a little bird was singing
In her leafy nest.

Through the sounds of war and labor
She had warbled all day long,
While the angels leant and listened
Only to her song.

But the starry night was coming,
And she ceased her little lay;
From the mountain tops the angels
Slowly passed away.

THE YOUNG WIDOW.

A census taker, going his rounds, stopped at an elegant brick dwelling house, the exact locality of which is no business of ours. He was received by a stiff, well-dressed lady, who would be well recognized as a widow of some year's standing.

On learning the mission of her visitor, the lady invited him to take a seat in the hall. Having arranged himself in a working position, he inquired for the number of persons in the family of the lady.

"Eight, sir," replied the lady, "including myself."

"Very well—your age, madam?"

"My age, sir," replied the lady, with a piercing, dignified look. "I conceive it's none of your business what my age might be. You are inquisitive, sir."

"The law compels me, madam, to take the age of every person in the ward; it is my duty to make the inquiry."

"Well, if the law compels you to ask, I presume it compels me to answer. I am between thirty and forty."

"I presume that means thirty five?"

"No, sir; it means no such thing—I am only thirty three years of age."

"Very well, madam," putting down the figures, "just as you say. Now for the ages of the children, commencing with the youngest, if you please."

"Josephine, my youngest, is ten years of age."

"Josephine—pretty name—ten."

"Minerva was twelve last week."

"Minerva—captivating—twelve."

"Cleopatra Elvira has just turned fifteen."

"Cleopatra Elvira—charming—fifteen."

"Angelina is eighteen, sir; just eighteen."

"Angelina—favorite name—eighteen."

"My oldest and only married daughter, sir, Anna Sophia, is a little over twenty-five."

"Twenty-five, did you say?"

"Yes, sir. Is there anything remarkable in her being of that age."

"Well, no, I can't say that there is; but is it not remarkable that you should be her mother when you were only eight years of age?"

About that time the census taker was observed running out of the house—why we do not know. It was the last time he ever pressed a lady to give her exact age.

OBEDIENCE TO PARENTS.

Show me a boy who obeys his parents, who has respect for age, always has a friendly disposition, and who applies himself diligently to get wisdom and to do good towards others, and if he is not respected and beloved, then there is no such thing as truth in the world.

Even when parents are ill-tempered and unreasonable they should be treated with respect and forbearance by their children. Olympias, mother of Alexander the Great, was a woman of ambitious disposition, and occasioned much trouble to her son.—Nevertheless, when pursuing his conquests in Asia, he sent her many splendid presents out of the spoils which he had taken, as tokens of his affection. He only begged that she would not meddle with state affairs, but allow his kingdom to be managed peaceably by his governor, Antipater. When she sent a harsh reply to the request which he had made, he bore it patiently, and did not use sharp language in return.

On one occasion, when she had been unusually troublesome, Antipater sent him letters, complaining of her in very grievous terms. Alexander only said, "Antipater does not know that one single tear of my mother is able to blot out six hundred of his epistles."

A boy was once tempted by some of his companions to pluck ripe cherries from a tree which his father had forbidden him to touch.

"You need not be afraid," said one of his companions, "for if your father should find out that you have taken them he is so kind he would not hurt you."

"That is the very reason," replied the boy, "why I would not touch them. It is true that my father would not touch me, yet my disobedience, I know, would hurt my father, and that would be worse to me than anything else."

A boy who grows up with such principles will be a man in the best sense of the word. It shows a regard for rectitude that would render him trustworthy under every trial.

Spots on the Sun.—Those who are interested in sun studies have an opportunity of seeing at this time and extraordinary number of sun spots. Five large groups are now visible. Ten or twelve of the spots are large and conspicuous. Around each of the groups are extensive regions of protuberations in the photosphere. With a magnifying power of sixty times, more than a hundred distinct spots may be counted. Whether the dry weather or the hot weather is due to the presence of spots we are not yet prepared to say. To settle that question will be the business of future inquiry.—O., in Providence Post, Sept. 26th.

"I suppose," said a quack, while feeling the pulse of a patient, "that you think me a humbug?" "Sir," replied the sick man, "I perceive you can discover a man's thoughts by his pulse."

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR
JAMES H. MOORE, Assistant and Local Editor.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1870.

HIGH FEDERAL TAXES.

The near approach of the Congressional elections in many of the States, North, West and South, is producing great activity among the politicians. Radical members of Congress and Mr. Vice President Colfax have been busy to obtain such figures from the books of the Public Treasury, as would counteract the bad repute in which Grant's administration is held in the West, on account of its extravagance and high taxes. The exhibits made by the Radical politicians, contrast the expenditures and receipts of Grant's administration with those of Johnson's, and labor to make the impression that Johnson's was a Democratic or Conservative administration. Johnson's was a Radical administration, controlled by a Radical Congress through his entire term, and although he became Conservative himself, yet he had no control over the expenditures or receipts of the Treasury, during his term. But the exhibit is not so favorable to Grant's administration after all.

The Democratic Central Committee sends forth to the country the following facts: The expenditures of Grant's administration in one year, exclusive of interest and principal of public debt, was $190,796,355, against $65,915,249.44 for one year, 1860, of Buchanan's administration which was only $2.19 cents for each citizen, while the expense of one year of Grant's was $4.76 for each citizen.

The enormous Federal tax of this Radical administration, and the evidences of corruption are so strong, that Radicalism is breaking down every where. So far as the South has any experience in Radical government, it is but another name for corruption, robbery, and waste.

DEFRAUDING THE REVENUE.

A Washington letter writer tells an ugly tale upon our Washington city officials showing that the revenue is largely defrauded by them. Recent discoveries have been made that naval officers frequently bring home contraband articles which are smuggled, and which escape the revenue tariff. Recently, the collector of customs at Alexandria, on overhauling a ship just arrived, found $2,500 worth of rare wine from Madeira, for President Grant, Secretary Robeson and Post Master General Creswell.—The collector had received his office by the efforts of the latter gentleman. He at first thought, he must obey instructions and seize the contraband effects of the officers and the wines of the chief officials, but a second thought excited his fears of losing office and he called off his officers from the search. The supposition is, that those articles evaded the revenue tariff. When shall we have an out and out, honest official?

INTEREST MONEY.

Many borrowers when pressed by necessity, seldom consider the risk of obtaining money at a high rate of interest. Prudent men are shy of the accumulation of interest upon them. It operates frequently as a serious impediment to prosperity, and hence, however well to do men are in the estimation of the public while alive, their estates when they die, are frequently heavily embarrassed. It is burning the candle at both ends.

Henry Ward Beecher, though regarded by many as a sensational preacher, often hits off telling facts in matters which pertain to domestic life. We have seen nothing recently from his pen more true or forcible than the following:

"No blister draws sharper than interest does. Of all industries none is comparable to that of interest. It works all day and night in fair weather and foul. It has no sound in its footsteps, but travels fast. It gnaws at a man's substance with invisible teeth. It binds industry with its film as a fly is bound in a spider's web. Debt rolls a man over and over, binding hand and foot, letting him hang upon the fatal mesh until the long-legged interest devours him. There is but one thing on a farm like it, and that is the Canada thistle, which swarms new plants every time you break its roots, whose blossoms are prolific, and every flower the father of a million seeds. Every leaf is an awl, every branch a spear and every plant a platoon of bayonets, and a field of them like an armed host. The whole plant is a torment and a vegetable curse. And yet a farmer had better make his bed of Canada thistles than attempt to be at ease upon interest."

NEW YORK HERALD.—The Herald's correspondent from Richmond, Va., a few days ago, gave a circumstantial account of a recent threatened conflict between the whites and blacks in Newberry county, S. C. The Herald of the 25th inst., publishes its correspondent's account, but makes a serious mistake as to locality. The Herald heads this article in large type "North Carolina," and goes on to state that it occurred in Newbern county, North Carolina! We have had no such threatened disturbance at any time in North Carolina.—There is no such county in the State as Newbern, though a city of that name, which has been uniformly quiet though its population is largely negro. The whole affair occurred in Newberry, South Carolina.

As North Carolina has had its full share of damaging rumors of disorder, which never took place, to bear, as published in Northern papers, we beg the Herald to correct the statement.

Hon. O. P. Morton, Senator from Indiana has been appointed Minister to Great Britain by President Grant, in place of Mr. Motley. Morton was the brains of the Radicals in the Senate.

CHINESE IMMIGRATION.

The experience of California in the utility of Chinese immigration, is not very favorable to the interests of American laborers or the whites from Europe. A late lecturer at San Francisco, shows that within the last twenty years about 100,000 Chinese emigrants have landed upon that coast.—He thinks to give them suffrage would throw 72,000 of them as voters upon the public. His statements, however, are very favorable to the industry and enterprise of the Chinamen. He says that the vocations of cigar making, matches, rope-making, tubs, pails, doors, sashes, frames, tailoring, boot making and woolen factory work, are almost monopolized by the Chinese. As waiters and common laborers they are spoken well of. They can live cheaper than negroes and work for about half the cost of ordinary laborers.

ANOTHER KU KLUX OUTRAGE.—A correspondent of the Southern Home who lives in Gaston county, recently furnished that paper with the following:

"There lives in our county, near the Air-Line Railroad, a civil old freedman by the name of Manuel Gaston. On last Saturday night, he found three loyal freedmen from said railroad in his potato patch, simply helping themselves to some potatoes, and the said Manuel did then and there, with malice aforethought, shoot one of said loyalists with his rusty old shot-gun, putting some 30 or 40 shot into him, greatly to the damage of said loyalist; the said Manuel not having the fear of Holden nor the militia before his eyes. For fear others may follow Manuel's example, something should be done."

Many examples of this species of Ku Kluxing occur, of which no notice is taken by the "powers that be."

NORTH CAROLINA STATE FAIR.

OFFICE OF THE N. C. AG. SOCIETY,
September 27, 1870.

To the people of the State:

It is now only three weeks to our next State Fair. It will begin on Tuesday the 18th of October, and continue four days.—Every preparation has been made for a satisfactory display of all articles which may be forwarded for exhibition.

I am advised, from notifications already given, that this will be the most attractive of any Fair ever held under the auspices of the State Society.

The various Railroad Companies, with commendable spirit, have reduced their fares so low that all who desire it can attend. The fares are, as a general rule, not more than one third full rates to "go and return."

Parties living not very remote from Raleigh can visit the Fair and go back the same evening so as not to spend a night from home. I feel confident that those attending will be abundantly repaid by the instruction gained and entertainment enjoyed. The officers of the Society extend to all a cordial invitation.

I earnestly request the friends of the Society, particularly its officers, including the Marshal and his aids, to persuade their acquaintances, having objects worthy of exhibition to forward them to me on or before the 17th Oct. There are many things animate and inanimate in the State of excellent merit, which are never found on any Fair Ground. Their owners are too modest or unambitious of mind. Every lover of our good old State should desire to see its productions fairly represented.

There will be men at our next Fair from all parts, not only of this, but of other States, North and South of us. An excellent opportunity will be afforded, of instructing ourselves as well as giving others some idea of our immense resources. Let therefore, each person who may read this paper make diligent enquiries as to what may be in his neighborhood, worthy to be seen, and when ascertained let him endeavor to have the articles forwarded as above directed; they shall be well cared for, and will be returned free of any charge on our Railroads.

The annual address will be delivered on Thursday, the 20th, by the Rev. Dr. Chas. Phillips, late Professor of Mathematics, of the University of North Carolina, now of Davidson College, known to be one of the most original thinkers in the South. On each night, beginning with the 18th October, there will be meetings of the Society held, at which, papers will be read, and discussions had on interesting subjects relating to Agriculture and the Mechanic arts.

J. J. LITCHFORD.
Cor. Sec. N. C. Agricultural Society.

For the Sentinel.

YANCEYVILLE, Sept. 28th, 1870.

EDITOR OF THE SENTINEL:—In the Standard of the 21st inst. there was an editorial headed "The Ku Klux in Caswell." "We learn from a reliable source, that the Ku Klux are again on the ride in Caswell. A few nights since, a band of them were after Anderson Graves who was a witness before the Judges against Felix Roan, and that another band of them was scouring the country near Yanceyville. Will not the citizens of Caswell unite to put down this new movement?" Before stating the facts in regard to this infamous falsehood and slander upon the citizens of Caswell, we demand to know of the Standard in behalf of the citizens of the county, who this reliable author is, and we would ask, will not the Standard cease to publish its old and stale falsehoods in regard to the citizens of Caswell, without the least shadow of foundation or truth. This Ku Klux outrage was reported by some of the meanest and most depraved negroes in the community, to have occurred on Friday night and came to the knowledge of the citizens of the village on Sunday morning, when they immediately notified Squire Howe, an acting Justice of the Peace for the Township, to proceed on Monday morning to investigate the matter, which was promptly done and resulted in the development of the following facts, to-wit: The notorious and infamous Anderson Graves who was summoned to appear in Raleigh as a witness before Pearson & Co., stole a pair of pants for the occasion, of one Ned Graves, with the promise subsequently to return or pay for them. True to his instincts he did neither, and on Friday night of the alleged Ku Klux outrage, Ned started in pursuit of Anderson to get his breeches, and went to the place of residence of one Scindy Neal, a notorious strumpet, and enquired for Anderson and was told he was not there, when in fact, he was in the house at the time, as Scindy afterwards admitted during the investigation. Ned failed to get his pants, and these are the whole of the facts in regard to the alleged Ku Klux outrage. If some half dozen white scallawags and negroes would leave the county and return to their places of nativity, there would be no further trouble in the county.

CASWELL.

The Weldon News says that the farmers of that section complain that the cotton crops will not turn out as good a yield as was anticipated.

For the Sentinel.

DEAR SENTINEL:

Judge Rodman is reported to have said, that Josiah Turner, Jr., did more to expose infamy and corruption, than any twenty men in the State. This remark was rich with truth, for his eye ever piercing the veil of Radical faction, flashed with indignation on crimes of deadliest import. He constantly held up to public gaze, the villainy, the insane fanaticism of our rulers, and justly branded them as a set of men "in habitual contempt of justice, in habitual communion with crime and hackneyed in the paths of dishonor." But thank God; they have been foiled in their dark, destructive schemes and that the thunderbolts of justice have overturned their corrupt-supported altars. Every true patriot will rejoice over our recent victory, not as one of party but of principle, as one of civil and political liberty, and one over which the ministering spirits on high might rejoice and the morning stars sing together. We rejoice that the temple of Janus has been closed and the temple of Peace thrown open. We rejoice that Judge Brooks snatched the great writ of habeas corpus from beneath the foot of craven hirelings and restored it in full force, and waved the judicial trident in triumph over the boiling seas of passion. We rejoice at the downfall of despotism and the termination of tyranny. We rejoice that the people, though deceived, oppressed, manacled and imprisoned by a lawless and rapacious soldiery, rose up in their strength and proclaimed aloud the eternal principles of Democracy. We rejoice that the hydra of Radicalism has fallen, as if struck by an iron mace and on its ruins is erected the eternal temple of justice. We rejoice to know that only the depraved on earth and the damned in hell, weep o'er the story of Radical ruin. We rejoice to know that prisons, when inhabited by such men as Turner and Kerr become palaces, and the chains that bound them the insignia of rank. The Radicals in the pursuit of personal gain, lost sight of public weal and forgot the historic truth, that nothing is more calculated to arouse the patriotism of a people than an oppressive and corrupt administration; that though they may tax the property and chain the body, they can never stifle the soul of the patriot. They forgot the uprising of the people under the tyrannical John, from whom they demanded and received the Magna Charta. They forgot the causes of the English Reformation. In passing their wicked and oppressive laws, they forgot the story of Caligula; but deserve to feel the just retribution that overtook him. He saw in the gleam of the dagger that smote to the earth his accursed heart,—the force of truth, well expressed by Lamartine, "that there is no law, save that which is engrafted on the hearts of the people." The Radical rulers were fit for their party, their party fit for them; but neither fit to rule the destinies of the people. They failed in every thing, save filling their pockets, out of the hard earnings of the people. They acted with eyes open against the acknowledged welfare of the country and every* principle of right. They attempted to overthrow the government, under the specious pretence of justice; her banners stolen from liberty's altar, and her allies congregated from the abyss of hell. At no time did they rise to a glorious zenith, but lay as stagnant waters weltering in rottenness and error, breathing pestilence, woe and degradation. They taxed the people beyond a parallel in the history of legislation, bankrupted the State, destroyed her credit and made her once proud University a mockery. They ruined her wealth, scaled her prosperity, dwarfed her resources and destroyed the implements of her internal improvements. They disregarded the liberties of her citizens, trampled upon the sacredness of the laws, robbed the widow of her dower, plundered the orphan in the cradle,

"And deal damnation round
On all they deemed a foe."

Can any man however liberal forgive these vile unnameable creatures? Can the people ever forget the gigantic schemes of fraud by them charied? Never! Never! Never! The fiat has gone forth from the great heart of the people that they shall be branded with scorn and infamy, and shall return to the filth from which they sprung. Surely North Carolinians you will never reward with honor or position those men who instead of attempting to lift the State from a slough of despair joined hands with the devil and his agents to trample her in the dust. The moral grandeur of our recent victory deserves the highest encomium. It is a vindication of true Democratic principles. Principles that like the nymph Undine, came forth from the muddy waters purer and brighter than ever before, holding in one hand, justice, economy and reform; in the other, universal suffrage and universal amnesty. It is but a faint whisper of what will be heard from the elections in other States. When, throughout this broad Republic from her centre to her remotest confines, the people will rise up in their power, shake off the shackles of Radicalism and rally around Democracy as the Kings of India flew to Alexander in his march from the Indus to the Hydaspes. The leaders of the Radical party in Congress have proved themselves the most short sighted, narrow minded bigots, that ever shamed or disgraced dishonor. They had no idea of broad and comprehensive views of policy. They forgot that if the South suffered that the North must suffer. That their prosperity depends upon our prosperity, that they were a commercial and we an agricultural people, and that no commercial country has ever prospered when it attempted to do so unaided, as for instance Venice, Genoa and Portugal.

They have repudiated their most sacred pledges, stripped the State of their sovereignty and thrown them into a worse condition, than that of colonial vassalage.—They promised, that as soon as the 14th amendment was carried, harmony should prevail and the peace dove settle upon the eaves of all our Southern homes. They carried the amendment and so soon as they did the cooings of the promised peace dove were drowned in the clanking of new forged chains. And so it will continue, unless the people arouse to a sense of justice, wrench a now tottering nation from the remorseless jaws of an insane and bloated despotism. We have, if properly managed, the most splendid and magnificently formed Government on earth. It is emphatically sui generis. Universal suffrage is I believe universal knowledge. Every man in this government from the highest to the lowest, has, thank God, a voice in its administration. Let them exercise this great boon as freemen should and all will be well, America's non-stained escutcheon, will ever more be bright and she will take her stand among the nations of the earth, firm and erect. Let her men of ability call the flowers of poesy and science to wreath her brow. Let the mildness of her sons temper the spirit of her people, and every where, "her camps, her courts and her groves" will be vocal with the music of liberty. The Radicals have at last succeeded in forming a concentrated government at Washington, a thing against which the Democrats have ever fought. And the fact that the Radicals have carried that point and abused it, will give the people new faith in Democracy and restore her pristine glory. State sovereignty has ever been the proudest canon of the Democratic church and the political touch stone of her orthodoxy; and God grant, the day is not far distant when it shall be restored in full force and virtue. The Radicals while in power in this State were narrow-minded, corrupt and proscriptive, now that we have defeated them we can afford to be magnanimous and use our victory with as much dignity as we bore our defeat.

Let not the teachings of the past few years be forgotten, but let our Legislators draw from them solemn and instructive lessons. Let them prove worthy sons of North Carolina and act for the welfare of the whole people, regardless of clime, creed or color. They have before them Herculean tasks. Not only are the finances in a deplorable condition, but the whole machinery of government is working badly. One of their chief objects is to show to the negro that 'tis to the Democrats he must look for and from them receive reward. That they would not, if they could, interfere with the rights guaranteed to him by the Constitution of the State and of the United States. That they regard him as a citizen, whose civil and educational welfare they will maintain. Let our Legislators reduce the number of officers and their salaries.—Abolish the office of Lieutenant Governor, Superintendent of Public Works, et id omne genus. Abolish this new fangled Code, these expensive County Commissioners, and restore the old County Court. Let them call a Convention and restore the old Constitution, striking out the word white.—This is what the people want. This will restore peace and harmony. Every one is tired of strife and contention, and there is a universal desire for quiet. Ye that have entered the arena of your country's wrongs, act wisely and prudently in the hour of triumph. As far as you can, pour oil on the troubled waters. Mend up the old ship of State, which, in passing through the ordeal of the past few years, has arrived at the haven, with torn mast, tangled cordage and tattered sails. Restore the implements of her internal improvements, build up her waste places and make the desert blossom as a rose. Invite to our State men of honesty and money, men who will identify their interests with ours, and who will assist us in restoring our legislative ruined State.

No State in the Union offers to the emigrant finer advantages than North Carolina. Her soil, the richest and most fertile. Her mountains "thickly inlaid with iron and copper, and her valleys richly strewn with gold. Her salubrious climate does much to lengthen the silver thread of existence. Her gorgeous scenery, tall forests and blue engirdling mountains on the one side and a flashing sea on the other, will compare with that of Switzerland. Her rose-begemmed and flower-scented vales as beautiful as the classic Tempe, and indeed

"All her nature shows
The last ascending footsteps of a God."

Yours respectfully,
MORGANTON.

LIFE INSURANCE AS AN INVESTMENT.

THE Widows & Orphans
BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK.
Cash Assets over $1,500,000,

ISSUES ALL FORMS OF NON-FORFEITABLE WHOLE LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES on the Mutual Cash Plan, declaring Dividends annually after the first annual premium paid. Assets exclusively Cash with no portion of its reserve fund in premium notes, consequently its "reserve" is stronger than that of any Company doing business in this State. No "Definite surrender values guaranteed" as an inducement to new business, but reference is made to the average amount, paid on each surrendered policy as shown by New York Insurance Reports, as evidence of having paid larger surrender values, than has been given under a minimum "Definite Cash Surrender Value." Death losses have not occurred, out of several hundred policy-holders in this State, which fact must establish the better ability of the Company, to pay larger dividends than Companies having an excessive mortality, the result of a selection of bad risks. "Fictitious Dividends are not declared, but Dividends are given from the actual surplus in accordance with the Company's Charter. The attention of the public is invited to the following comparison of cost, demonstrating the advantages over ordinary insurances, of the

TONTINE DIVIDEND PLAN:

Ordinary Life Policy Tontine Dividend Plan. Age 38, amount $10,000. 10 years in force. Annual Premium $291 50.	Ordinary Life Policy Mutual plan Cash Co. Ladies desiring genuine French Bonnets and Hats can find them at HESTER'S.

The Hair dressing is also attractive to the Ladies.

City Cotton Market.—Yesterday morning there were about 75 bales of cotton sold during business hours at 13 to 13¼ for good ordinary.

Unmailable Letters.—The following letters are held in the Post office of this city for lack of proper postage: John A. Hedrick, Spring Grove, N. C. John M. Waddell, Warrenton, N. C., also one letter without any address whatever.

Mayor's Court.—Yesterday morning Dixon Hayes, white, made his bow before His Honor, charged with being drunk on the streets. Dixon told a pitiful tale of being robbed of some superflous funds which he had on hand, when he was so unfortunate as to get drunk. After being properly warned as to the vicious tendency and moral degradation of indulging too freely an appetite for strong drink, Dixon was allowed to depart.

Henry Biggs, charged with purloining a pair of shoes from M. A. Parker, was next interviewed, but owing to the absence of an important witness, this case was continued.

State Council F. of T.—The State Council, Friends of Temperance, of North Carolina, will hold their fourth Annual Session in the city of Raleigh, on Wednesday, 30th November next. The members of Oak City Council and citizens will endeavor to make the visit of delegates to the Council pleasant, and arrangements made for reduced fare on the Railroads.

Another Shooting Affair.—Yesterday, in Oak Grove Township, in this county, near the Granville line, Nelson Estes, colored, was shot and instantly killed, by E. A. Estes, white. The weapon used was a pistol and the ball took effect in the murdered man.

We have not heard the particulars further than these: They were farming on shares, yesterday morning E. A. Estes told Nelson to go and drive some hogs out of the field; Nelson set dogs on the hogs; in the mean time E. A. Estes had caught his horse and rode to where the dogs were after the hogs. He told Nelson to get the dogs off, which not being done as ordered, he shot him as stated. After ascertaining that the man was dead, he immediately crossed over the line into Granville county, and it is thought will endeavor to make his escape from the State.

Special coroner Magnin went out yesterday afternoon to hold an inquest on the body.

We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Widows and Orphans Benefit Life Insurance Co., of which Messrs. Martin and Finch are the General Agents for this State. A careful examination of its popular "Tontine Dividend Plan" of insurance, will fully satisfy all that as an investment, combining the benefits of life insurance, it has no equal.

Presbyterian Synod.—The Synod of North Carolina, will meet in this city, Wednesday, October 5th, and be opened with a sermon, in the Presbyterian Church, at 7½ o'clock, P. M., by the Rev. J. N. Rankin, of Lenoir, the last Moderator. The Synod is composed of the Presbyteries of Concord, Fayetteville, Mecklenburg, Orange and Wilmington, and, according to the published minutes of the last General Assembly, embraces 95 ministers and 33 candidates for the ministry. Each Church, in addition to the minister, is entitled to be represented by a ruling elder. Divine service may be expected, every evening, in the Presbyterian Church, at 7½ o'clock, and the daily sessions of the Synod, will be open to the public. We presume that, as is usual on such occasions, the Railroads will pass delegates and others attending the Synod at half fare.

Teachers Wanted.—We are requested to say that the School Committee of Raleigh Township desire to engage the services of five good teachers—three males and two females—for the white schools in the Township. Preference will be given to residents of the Township, when satisfactory testimonials of qualification and character are presented.

Held for Postage.—There is an unmailable letter lying in the Richmond, Va., post office directed to Miss Ellen Roan, Yanceyville, N. C.

A Word to the Elderly.—Nobody loves to be gray. That's human nature. Every body detests the hair dyes and the sedimental 'not-a-dyes." That's human nature too. Phalon's Vitalia, or Salvation for the Hair, which literally rejuvenates gray hair, is free from the filth and sediment, which defile the dyes and "not-a-dyes."

Butter.—Good butter is a luxury, but bad butter is a grievous offence to the palate. It is much to be regretted that everybody does not know how to make good butter, and that many who make it good, do not know how to keep it good.

We have sometimes of late, thought that we had tasted butter which had been adulterated. An Ohio man sometime ago applied for a patent to increase the quantity of butter by adulteration, and was refused as he ought to have been. We regret to see that some of the papers publish the plan of adulteration, which we shall not, for the reason that we will not aid the scoundrels, with which the land is filled, to impose upon the public. Milk and butter makers who adulterate either ought to be known and put through a course of sprouts.

Good, clean, well made and well kept butter is always in demand and always commands a good price. The farmers of our Western counties who have the finest country in the world for good milk, butter and cheese, ought to turn their attention to this subject.

National Union League.—This secret political organization, which has given rise to the Ku Kluxism as well as all the secret political organizations of the South, continues its mischief, by assuming to control political affairs in all the Southern States. It claims to have under its special care the reconstruction of those States which do not suit it. We repeat the hope we expressed some time since, that at the earliest moment after the meeting of the General Assembly, it will pass a stringent law forbidding all secret political associations in the State, making it a misdemeanor for any person to be a member. Let the horror of the Radicals at Ku Kluxism, be fully tested. The Union League has been at the bottom of nine-tenths of the crimes committed in this State.

Public Sales.—Yesterday at noon, Deputy Marshal Foote, sold at public auction the buildings of the Standard office and the house and lot formerly known as the Root property, under an execution against Milton. S. Littlefield in favor of S. S White of New York. The Root lot was bought for the plaintiff at $600; the Standard buildings were knocked off at $201 to Sheriff Lee. The Watson lot was also put up, but so groundless was Littlefield's title that it was knocked off for $5. There are many incumbrances on all the property sold.

We mentioned last week that a Fair was held in the basement of the market house by the colored Baptist Church of this city to raise funds for some religious purpose.—We are requested by Friday Jones to say that this was an error; that the colored Baptist Church of the city have held no Fair at the place mentioned, but that it was held by some other denomination.

Nelson Weaver, Tom Johnston, Eaton Mills and Munroe Brown, the three first named charged with the R. & G. Railroad robbery, escaped from Warren jail on last Sunday, by knocking down the jailer and running over him. They have not yet been re captured.

New York City.—Last week there were 446 deaths, 215 births, 91 marriages and 1,837 arrests by the police in the city of New York. There were about double the number of arrests in New York in one week than occur in North Carolina in a year. In a year, we have about eight times as many deaths, about forty times as many births and about thirty times as many marriages as New York has in a week.

Dead.—The "living skeleton" that passed through the country some years ago as a show, died recently in San Francisco.—The worms didn't make much by his death, unless he improved in flesh after we saw him.

Shoo Fly.—Some one has put the original Shoo Fly into German, and we produce it for the special pleasure of our many German readers:

Ich fuhl', ich fuhl', ich fuhl',
Ich fuhl', wie der Morgenstern;
Ich fuhl', ich fuhl', ich fuhl',

CAREY.

This little village, situated eight miles West of Raleigh, at the junction of the North Carolina and the Chatham Railroads, is rapidly being built up; fifteen buildings having been put up within the last twelve months, while other lots have been purchased and arrangements are being made for their improvement. Among those erected during the past year, is the Male and Female Academy. This building is 30 by 90 feet and is two stories high, with right and left wings. There are four rooms in the building, three below and one above. Each room is 30 by 30 feet and is well pitched. The upper room is, we learn, specially designed for music. By means of sliding doors the entire lower floor can be converted into one room, and is, thereby, rendered convenient and useful for any public occasion.

There is preaching every Sabbath afternoon, in the Academy, by the Rev. A. D. Blackwood, Rev. Thos. G. Whitaker, Rev. W. M. Sorrell and Rev. Mr. Harris, (alternately.) Prayer meetings are held on Wednesday evening of each week.

The school is in a flourishing condition, under the management of A. H. Merrett, Principal, who, by the way, is a graduate of the University of North Carolina, and an accomplished scholar, which, together with an experience of fifteen years, warrants all that can be wished. Miss Lucy Whitaker is in charge of the Female department.

The second session of this school commenced under very favorable auspices, with a scholarship of nearly fifty. There is, also, a flourishing Sabbath School at this place, under the superintendence of the Principal, numbering some sixty scholars.

Parents wishing to send their children to a first class school, in a healthy section of country and in a good community, would do well to address the Principal at Carey. Board, in good families, can be had in the neighborhood at reasonable rates.

The citizens deserve much credit for having done so much for this place, and especially for keeping it clear of the contaminating influence of spirituous liquors, which is a curse to all society, and they intend to keep this monster evil out of their midst by giving no aid, sanction or encouragement to those who engage in the traffic.

I SHALL proceed to sell to the highest bidder for cash, at the Court House door in the Town of Louisburg, on the 1st Monday in November next, it being the 7th day of the month, some Twenty or Twenty-five Thousand Acres of valuable Land, among which is the well known Portis Gold Mine, lying in Franklin county on the waters of Fishing and Shocco Creeks, containing nine hundred thirty-three and one-third (933⅓) acres together with all the Machinery and appurtenances.

Also all the chattle property. This property is so well known that any particular description is deemed unnecessary. When this is done and it will be accomplished in a few weeks, this property will be immensely valuable. The property will be sold for cash and unless parties from a distance come in competition, it must be greatly sacrificed.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Thursday Evening Dispatches.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Boston, Sept. 29.—The steamer Guerriere with Farragut's remains is ashore on Great Point—assistance is sent from Boston.

Farraguts remains have landed and will go forward by boat from Fall River.

FOREIGN.

The Roman Junta declines to accept the restriction on the Press, and will resign unless the basis of the plebiscit is changed as it now asserts the spiritual power of the Pope.

The capture of Mountmedy is semi-officially reported.

London, Sept. 29.—The Bank rate has been reduced 1 per cent. The Prussian government officially denies the presence of a national vessel in either the Black or the Red Sea bearing the name of "Hertha" or "Bertha."

It is understood that Alsace and Loraine will be represented by a Commission and for the present exempted from federal burthens.

The Telegraph has a balloon special dated Tours, 28th stating that the Prussians are retiring towards Paris, and that great confidence existed in Paris.

The Times has a special giving the following intelligence from Tours: The French made another sortie from Metz consisting of infantry, cavalry and artillery. The French advanced to Arsile Queux, where they were defeated but carried back the wounded, dead and Prussian prisoners. The village was burned by shells. Guns lately in position before Strasburg are hurrying to Paris; some have already arrived. The headquarters of the King are at Ferrieves; Crown Prince at Versailles and the Crown Prince of Saxony at Grand Fresnblay. Carrier pigeons are the only means of communication between Tours and Paris.

Balloons offered too fair a mark for the Prussians. The railway between Chalons and the German border is re-laid. The Brussels papers deny excitement here over the failure of the peace negotiation. The Independence Belge, referring to Bismarck's contradiction of Favre's statements says, Favre's statements must be signed by somebody more truthful than Bismarck.

Tours, Sept 29.—The government publishes a dispatch this morning from the French Consul at Basle, contradicting the surrender of Strasburg. The Prussians made three tremendous but unsuccessful assaults. A white flag was subsequently displayed for a truce to bury the dead, which gave rise to the rumor that the city was captured. Its early fall is however probable and, notwithstanding the denial of the Consul at Basle, there has strong belief that the rumor is not groundless.

MARKETS.

New York, Sept. 29.—Flour dull and unchanged; Wheat quiet and heavy; Corn dull and declining; Pork firmer 24¼ to 24¾; Lard dull at 15½ to 15¾; Cotton steady, uplands 16½; Spirits Turpentine quiet; Rosin steady.

Stocks very dull; Gold 13½; Money 5 to 6; Sterling, long 9½, short 10½; bonds 12?; Va ex coupons 61, new 61; Tenn. old 70, new 64; Tenn. ex coupons 61, new 63¼.

London, Sept 29.—Consols 92½; Bonds 90¼.
Liverpool, Sept. 29.—Cotton opens quiet, Uplands 8¾, Orleans 9 to 9¼, sales 10,000 bales.

Thursday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, Sept. 29.—Col. Dana, army Paymaster, died yesterday in San Francisco. Customs for the week ending on the 24th, amount to nearly four millions. The State Department has the following: "Havana, Sept. 29.—The Emancipation decree was published yesterday. Its provisions are similar to the plan of the law published in Madrid May 28th."

VIRGINIA.

Richmond, Sept. 29.—There is a heavy flood West of the Blue Ridge Mountains, and considerable damage has been done to the Chesapeake and Ohio Road, near Staunton to-day.

The municipal office troubles here have commenced again. The Chief of Police was arrested to-day on the complaint of Wm. B Davidson, who claims to be City Collector under the enabling act and the late Judicial decisions. The Chief, in turn, had Mr. Davidson arrested for perjury in swearing he feared molestation.

Davidson was lately ejected from office, under direction of the City Council, by the Chief of Police.

Greenwood Depot, Sept. 16.—A tremendous rain storm commenced this morning, and it still continues with unabated violence. It is pouring down in torrents and all modes of travel in this section, and as far as heard from in the State, has been interrupted. The eastern bound train on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, from the White Sulphur Springs this morning, was unable to proceed any further than Afton Station, on account of a wash on the Road and five land slides between Afton and Gordonsville.

The train commenced to return to Staunton, but after passing the Blue Ridge tunnel it became unsafe to proceed further, the water on the track being nearly up to the fire in the engine. The special train containing the President, Gen. Wickham, Superintendent Whitcomb, the Directors and party, had barely passed over the Waynesboro' bridge when it was swept away by the flood. The eastern bound train containing a large number of passengers returning from the Virginia Springs, is water bound in the mountains at the west end of the Blue Ridge tunnel. No lives lost so far as heard from.

1 P. M.—The rain is still coming down in torrents. Passengers will be unable to get away from the tunnel before to-morrow evening.

GEORGIA.

Augusta, Sept. 29.—The Democratic Convention of the 5th Congressional District nominated Gen. R. W. Carswell, for the forty-first and Judge W. M. Reese, for the forty-second Congress.

FOREIGN.

Antwerp, Sept. 29.—A great fire is now (noon) raging. A mutiny occurred aboard of the ship "Elizabeth" hence to New York. The second officer was mortally wounded. The ringleaders have been arrested.

London, Sept 29.—The Wurtemburg Gazette, the official organ, denies the intention of the government to enter the North German Confederation. The cordial friendship between the Austrian and Prussian Cabinets is noticed.

A writer in the Post hopes that England will not be sacrificed to her cousins.

The increase of specie amounts to £500,000. The garrison of Strasburg was removed to Rasdadt, Baden. The Prussians formally occupied the City to-day.

The Telegram's special from London says that dispatches has been received from Mundelsheim, dated on the 28th stating that Strasburg surrendered only when the helpless condition of the place rendered it almost inevitable. The victims of a heart rendering fever, which is prevalent in the city, seemed almost numberless. The inhabitants are generally famishing, and the dead and the dying are lying in crowds in the streets. This state things decided Uirich to capitulate. In doing so he shed tears and exclaimed, as the Prussians entered the city, "J'ai fait mon devoir."

Some Paris papers accuse Favre of having acted upon a private understanding with Bismarck.

Ferrieres, Sept. 29.—Four telegraph cables were found in the river leading to Rouen and the South and destroyed.

Rome, Sept. 29.—Cardinal Peraldi has gone to Florence on a secret mission.

Tours, Sept 29.—The prefects of the several departments adjacent, met to organize further means of defence. Organization is progressing rapidly. Companies of thirty men are received by the government. They are permitted to choose their own officers and will act independently of the regular troops, but if circumstances demand it, these companies will be united under one command. The departments will furnish arms and equipments for this force. The term of enlistment is for the war. Another corps is organizing which will carry the black flag. They announce that they will neither give nor ask quarters.

The troubles at Lyons from the red flag continue, though the hope of their suppression is not abandoned. Marseilles is quiet.

Havre, Sept. 29.—Merchandise remaining here is protected by neutral consuls. Their flags fly over the warehouses.

Huge electric lights illuminates the entire Bay and enormous chains protect the entrance to the harbor.

Berlin, Sept. 29.—Three opinions prevail in Germany regarding the terms of peace. One party agrees with Bismarck that the war ought not to stop until Alsace, Loraine and Metz are annexed to Germany, whence they were taken. The other party demand the dismantlement of Strasburg and Metz and indemnity for the cost of the war. The other party demand Alsace and a narrow strip of Loraine in the East, where the German is still the prevailing language.—The Cologne Gazette favors the last plan.

The preparations of Russia proceed on a gigantic scale. Great activity every where prevails.

Lyons, Sept. 29.—Gen. Cluseret in heading the revolution, forced his way into the Town Hall to-day, and addressed the people. The National Guard arrested Cluseret and his adherents without bloodshed.

Clermont has been captured. Three hundred Mobiles and the citizens resisted the first attack, when the Prussians returned with artillery and reinforcements and captured the place. The Prussians surrounded Soissons. The shot and shell since Saturday destroyed the suburbs and the bridge thrown across the Aisne at that place.

THE MOST VIGOROUS AND PROGRESSIVE COMPANY IN THE WORLD.

The Equitable

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES

190 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

BURROUGHS & SPRINGS,
GENERAL AGENTS,

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its cash assets are upwards of $13,000,000.00 and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of promissory notes as in many Companies.
3. Its cash income per annum is over $6,500,000.00 and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes-of-hand of policy-holders, as the case in many companies.
5. It has paid to widows and orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4 000 000.
6. Such payments are made in cash, and not partly in cancelled notes, as is the case in many companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a policy for premium notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $1,500,000, and upwards, in cash divided among policy-holders, (this included the dividend for the present year), as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available as cash in payment of premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start and not postponed until after the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made more progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the world.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected and its dealing so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other company in the world.
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year ending "December, 1, 1869, was $51,031,141.00.
18. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any other company, showing that capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, and not by the mode adopted by many companies, which is grossly unjust to a large proportion of the policy-holders.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with safety to the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business as is the case with many new companies.
21. It is the favorite company in the United States, as is shown by its new business for last year, being nearly $13,000,000 greater than any other company.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S
"VITALIA;"
Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

SUCCEEDS HIS FATHER IN THE AGENCY OF THE NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE CO., U. S. A.

For the Central and Northern Counties in NORTH CAROLINA.

The NATIONAL, under the management of his father, P. F. Pescud, Sr., secured very many warm friends who obtained policies for large amounts, and the fact that it has issued upwards of and nearly doubled its immense Capital of $1,000 000 in about two years, speaks more for its wonderful popularity than any language at my command. The rates being based on the Stock Plan, and when contrasted with Mutual Cash rates, are so much lower, that a certain and handsome dividend is secured from the date of the Policy.

10.000 POLICIES,

I will be gratified to take applications from my friends and all wanting Policies, and shall want many active and reliable Agents, in the fields assigned me.

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Ralgigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 190,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 TO 550 LBS.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet · Size Bale 4½ feet x26x28x50in; wt. Bale 400 to 550 lbs.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press," I purchased from you last season, and consider it to be the best Press I ever saw. Having packed bales to weigh from five hundred and ninety (590) to six hundred and twelve pounds (612.) I consider it the best and most durable Press I ever saw used, and can cheerfully recommend its use to the farmers of North Carolina.

Yours truly, C. W. BYNUM.

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the plan upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

Yours very respectfully,
JAS. B. WILDER

THOS. H. BRIGGS, Esq: Dear Sir.—In reply to yours of the 13th asking how I was pleased with the Utley Press I used last season, I would say that it gave entire satisfaction.

THOS. H BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Sir—I have used "Utley's Cotton Press" for baling hay for some months. It works well and gives entire satisfaction. I regard it as the best Hay Press I have seen.

Respectfully, E. H. POGUE.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 18th, 1870.

T. H BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season. I packed my own crop of cotton, also other crops for my neighbors, making in all one hundred bales. I consider it superior in all respects to any Press I have ever seen and that it is every thing the patentee represents. I packed bales weighing from four hundred to five hundred and ninety-seven pounds.

Yours truly, W. T. HOWLE.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers, in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important SAFEGUARD. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

MODERATE CIRCUMSTANCES,

The Excelsior issues Polices on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all their really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are priviliged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State, who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the EXCELSIOR forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

P. F. PESCUD,
